THE ARLEN

HERE is a very charming, small, suburban home which any one would be proud to own. One of the interesting things about it is that it has absolutely no pretensions. "You can live here and be yourself," it seems to say.

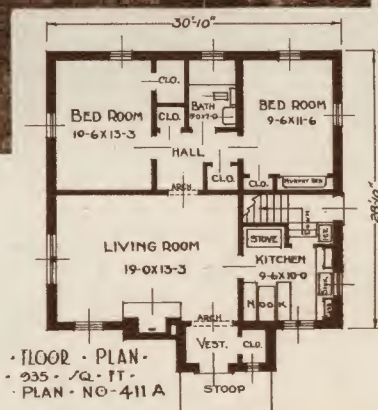

■ Colorful because of buff brick, tan and green awnings and green roof.

THE STEELE

■ A simple dwelling which will hold its own in any group of small houses.

■ Provides an inspiration to orderliness. The floor plan insures step and labor saving.

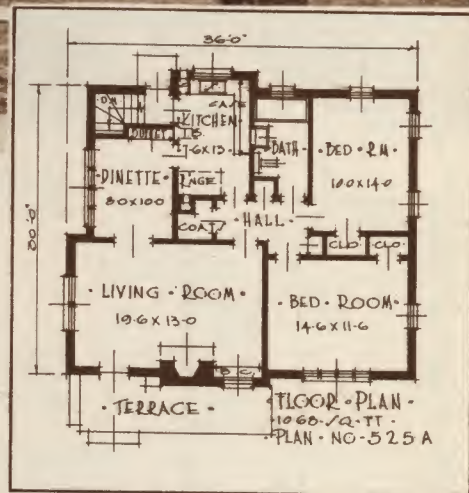

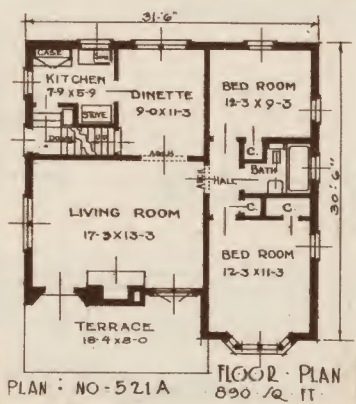

■ Relieves brick by half-timbered stucco.

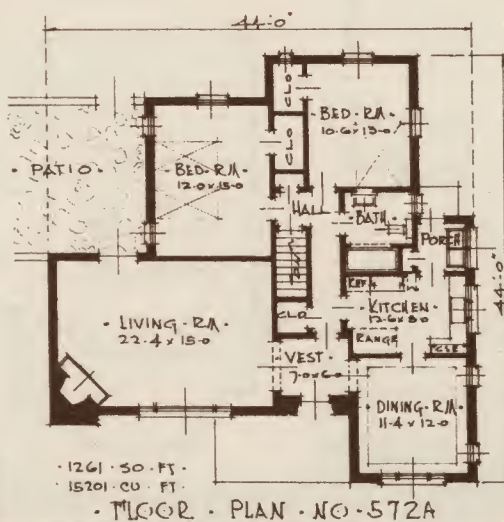

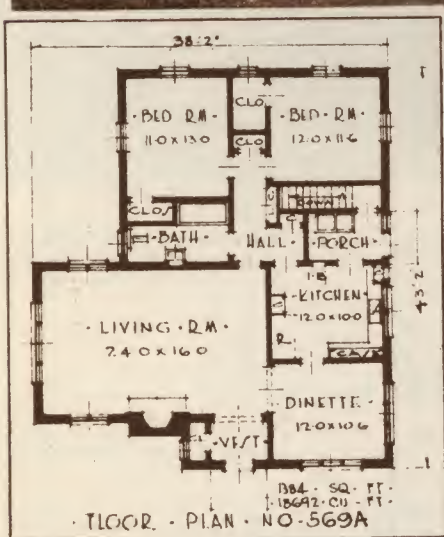

■ Modified English cottage with interesting fireplace detail inside and out.

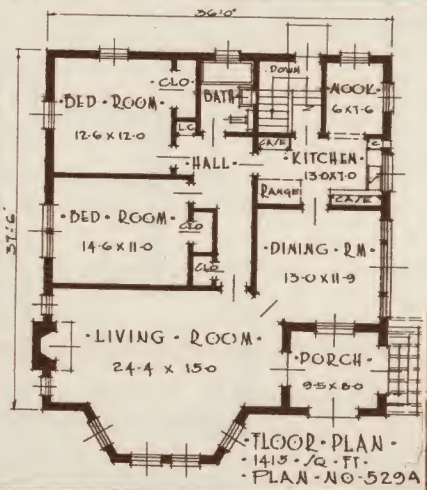

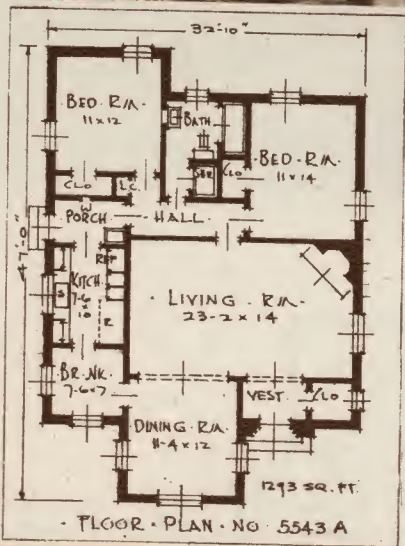

■ Western colonial type.

■ Mediterranean type with tile roof.

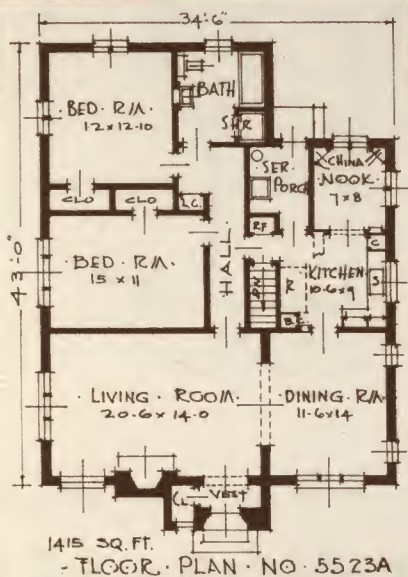

■ Beautifully arched living room window and high gabled shake roof.

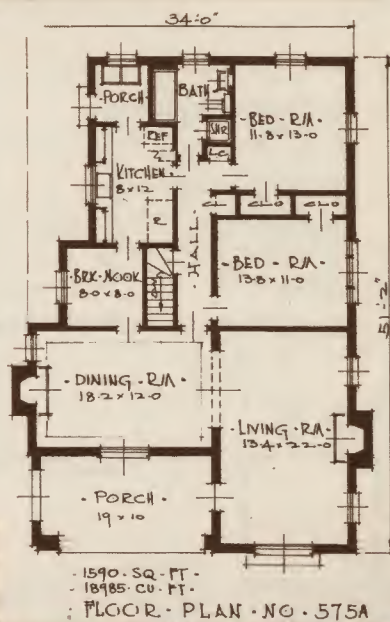

■ Has porte-cochere to add agreeably to the pleasant house design.

■ Graceful, very well lighted, compact, artistic.

■ Cool in summer, warm in winter because of white-washed brick and red tile roof.

Snug, Homelike, charming.

■ Low, rambling, spacious.

THE SANTA BARBARA

SANDFORD

■ Has a remarkable floor plan.

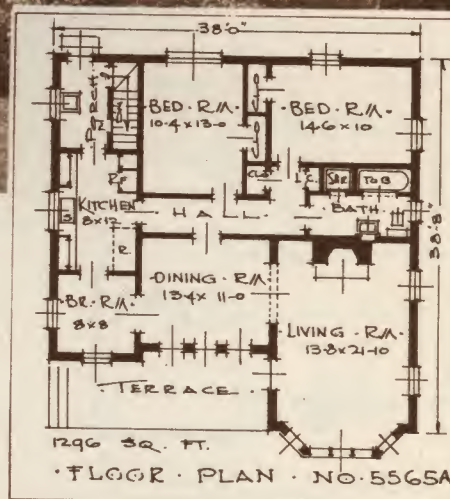

■ Suggests the country and fireplace evenings.

THE DELREY

■ A gabled-house with steep, shingled roof and irregularly laid brick trim.

■ Staunch, built for privacy, and takes advantage of all available space.

■ Set low on level ground producing a pleasing effect.

■ Whitewashed brick and red tile roof—a combination finding increasing favor.

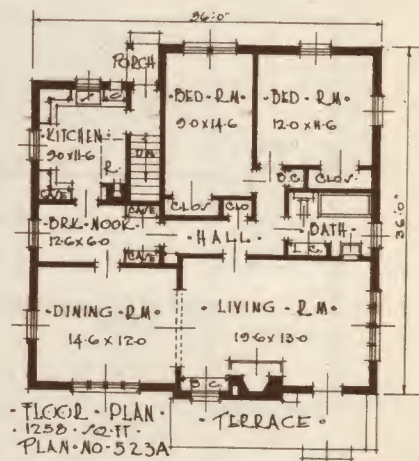

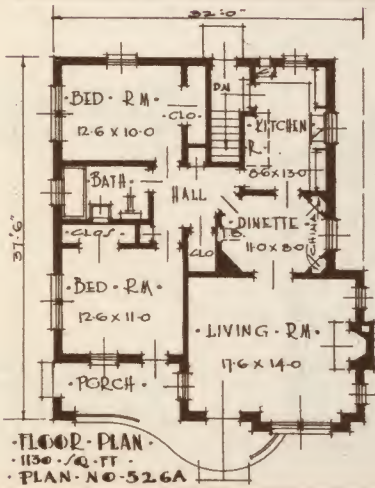

■ One of the most attractive houses offered with recessed doors and windows.

■ Compact, artistic, different.

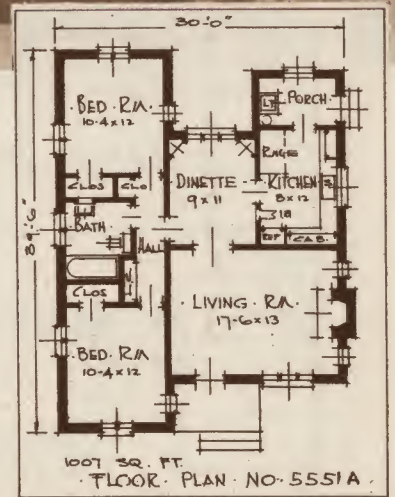

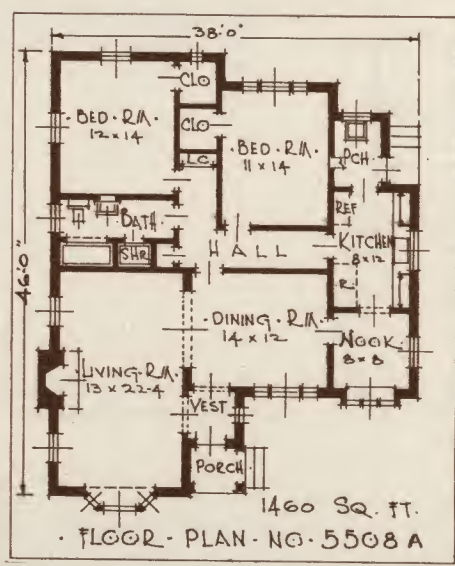

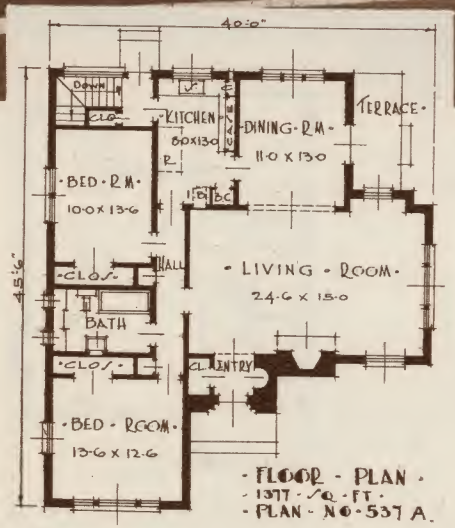

■ An English type home achieving a pleasing effect by irregularly laid bricks.

■ Buff brick veneer. The large porch is an attractive feature.

■ Provides a compact, convenient and comfortable floor plan.

■ Has gabled vestibule and interesting window treatment.

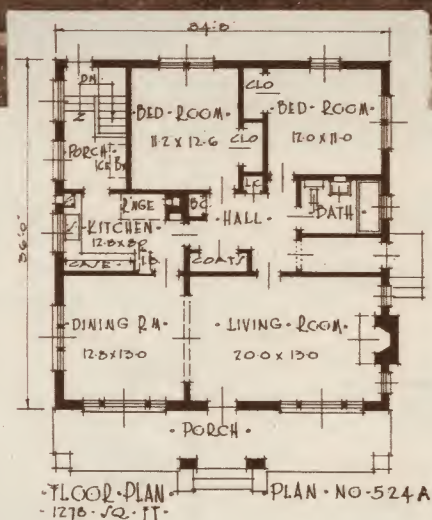

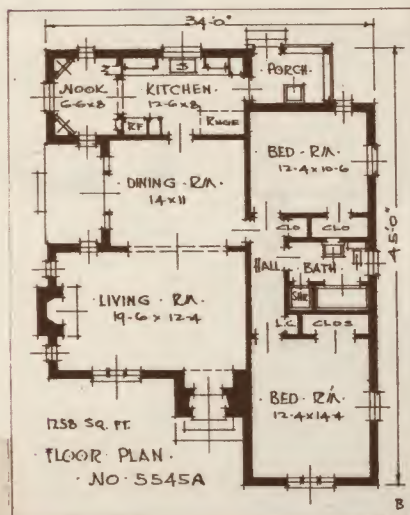

■ Distinguished by its triple windows on both sides of the dining room.

■ Proves again the beauty of brick.

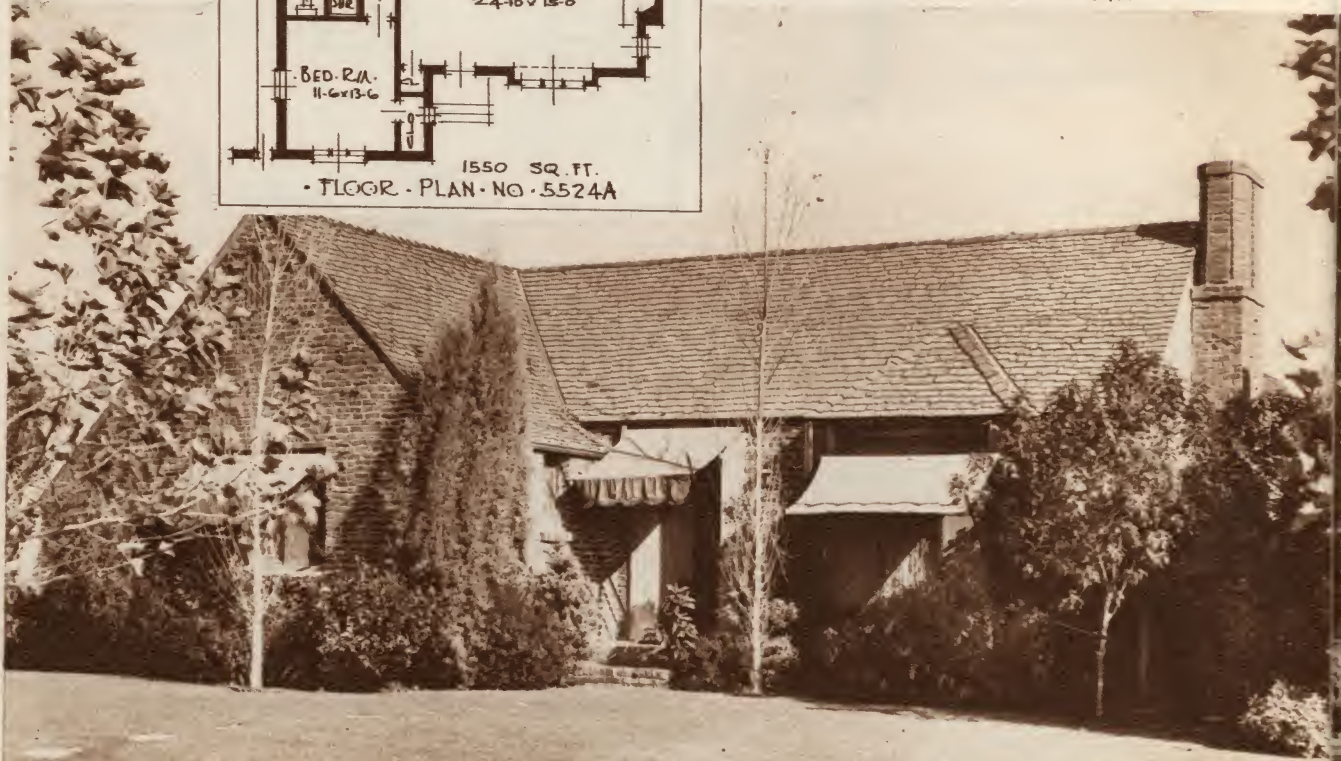

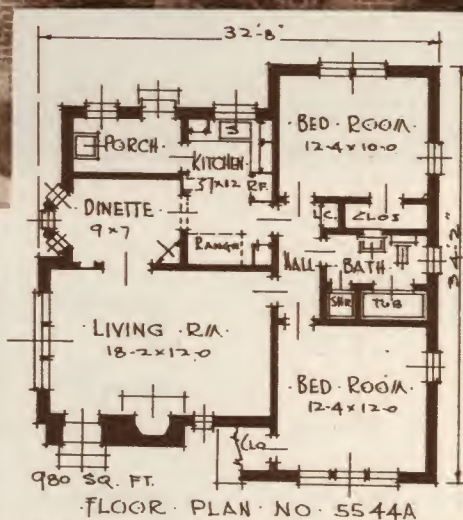

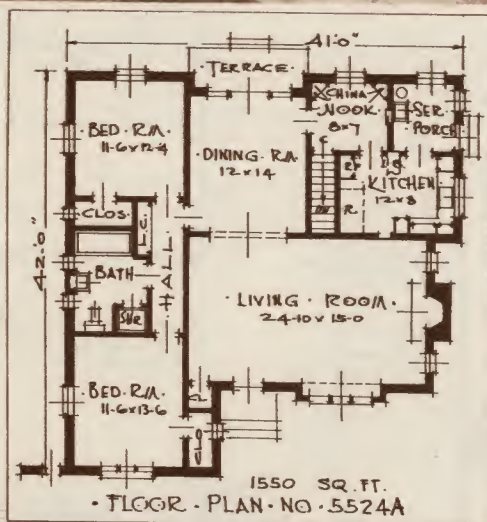

■ Compact, substantial, simple, sensible.

■ Gracious, dignified, private, comfortable.

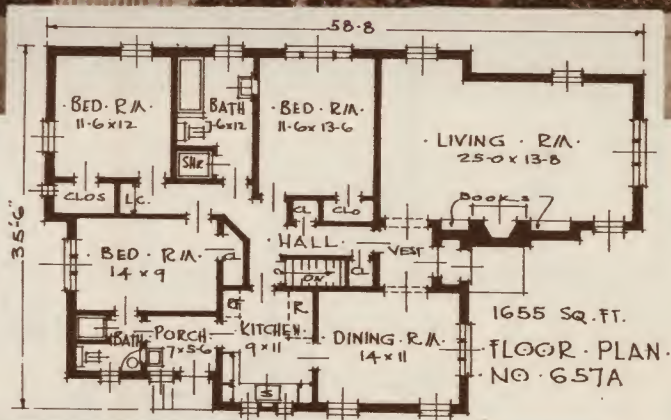

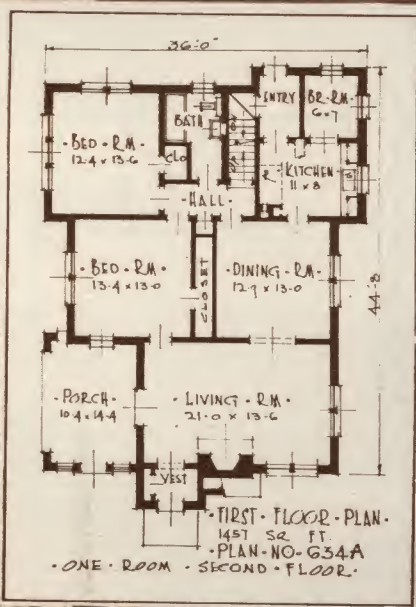

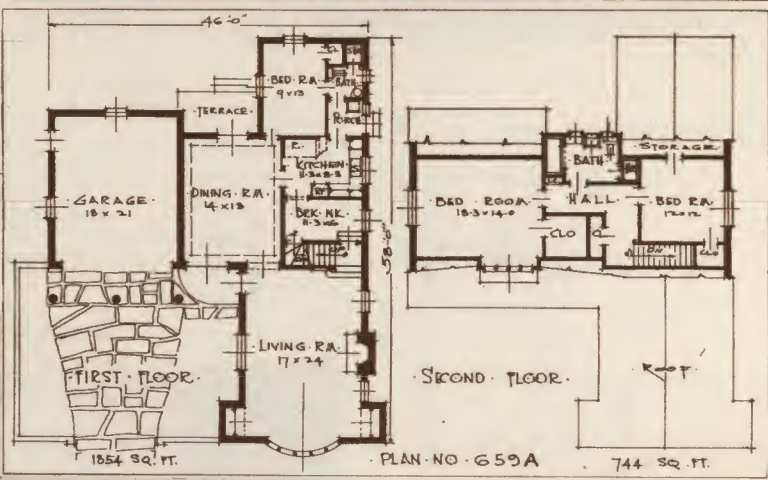

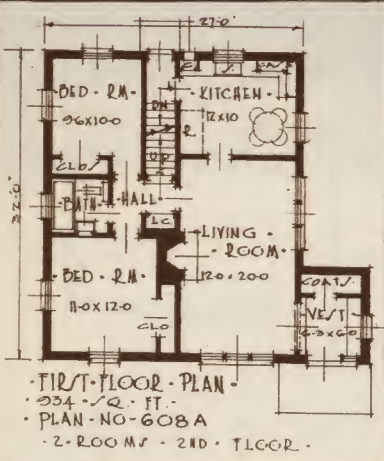

■ Unusual, interesting, complete.

■ Particularly appealing because of the varying materials used on its exterior.

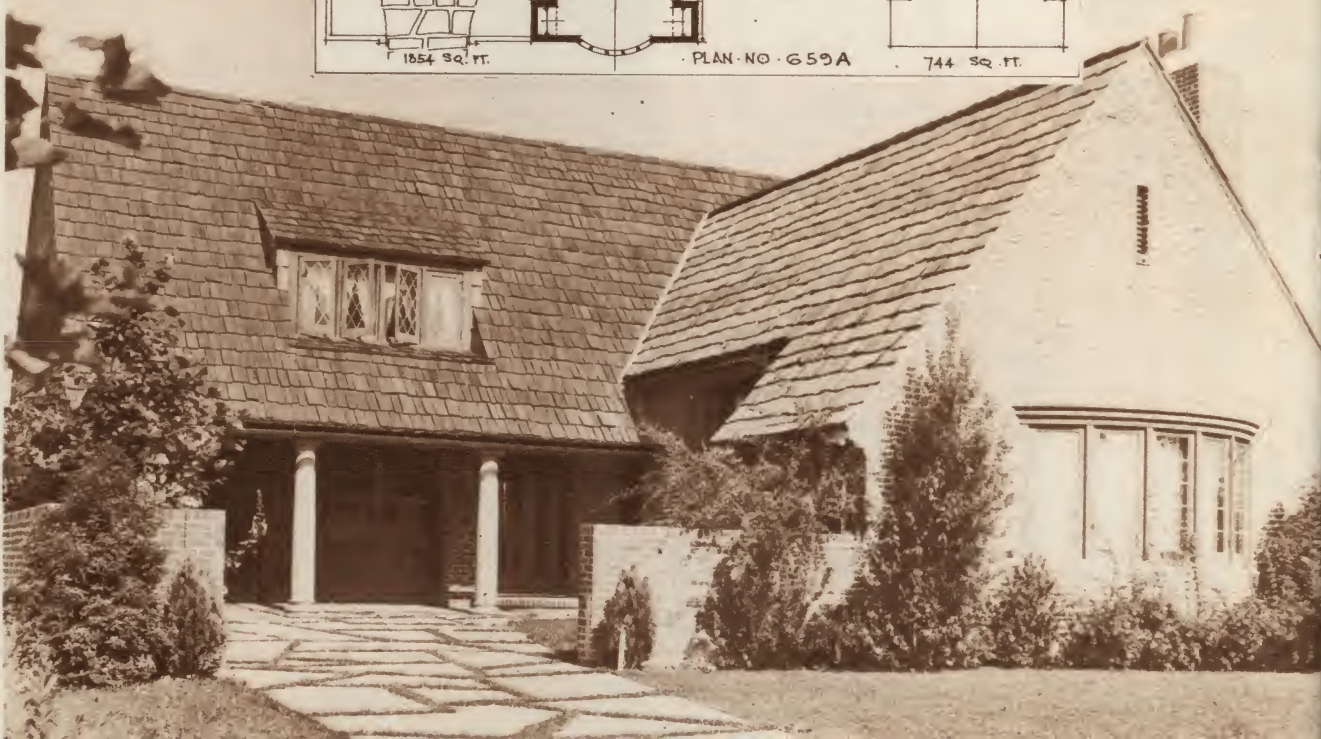

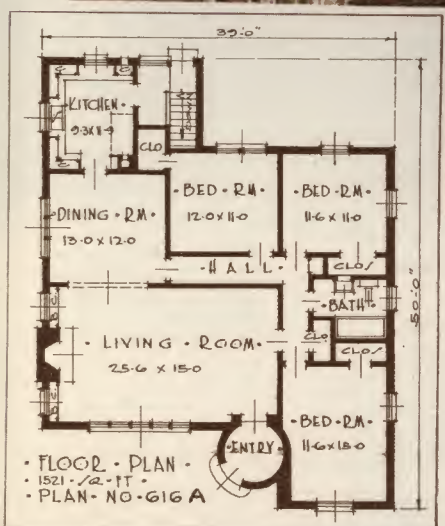

■ Has familiar, square, farmhouse effect.

■ Spacious, homey, dignified.

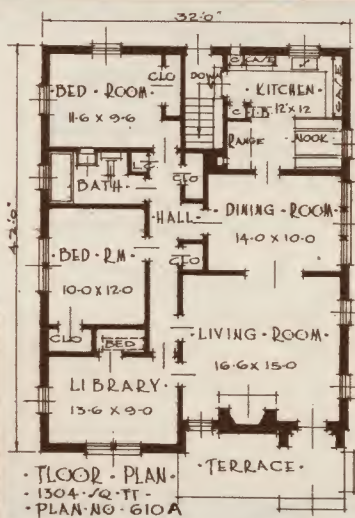

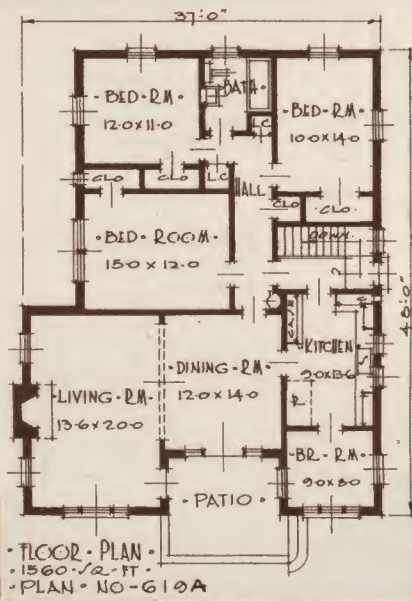

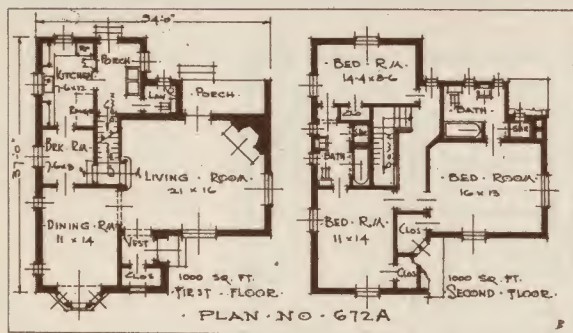

■ Has its roof in brown, staggered shingles; walls of mellowed red brick in white mortar.

■ Note design in doorway, chimney, gables.

■ Delightful 2-story house of whitewashed brick. Large rooms are cheerful.

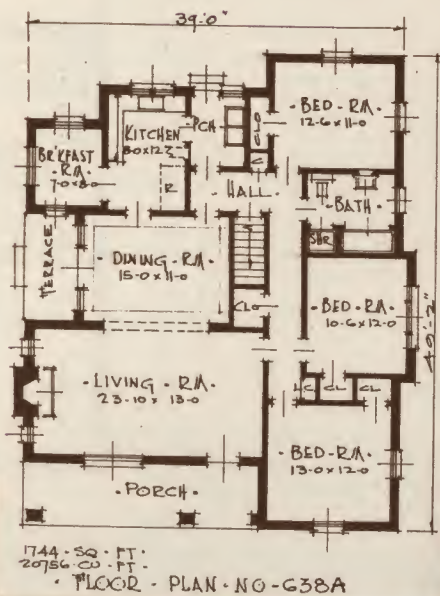

■ Popular because of its pleasing exterior and convenient arrangement of rooms.

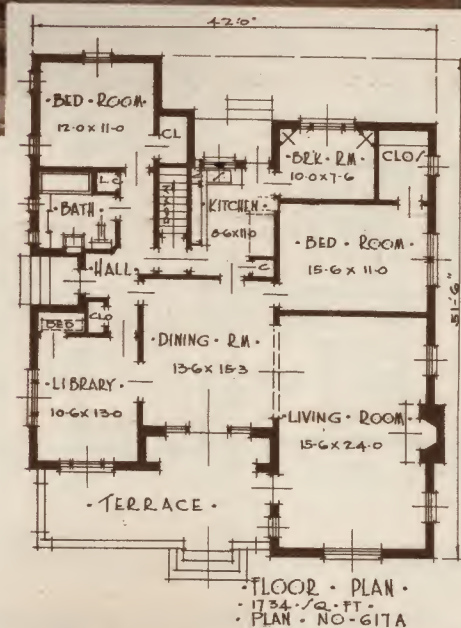

■ Proves the value of angles outside and in.

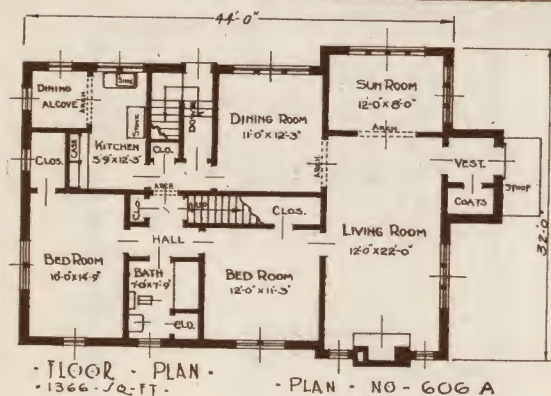

■ Has the true spirit of old Spain.

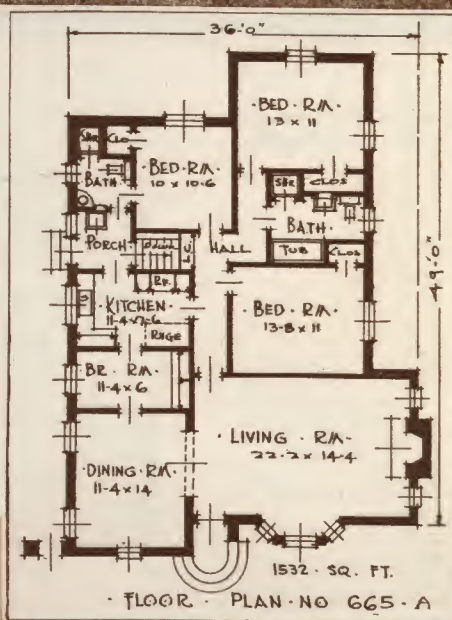

■ An English type, compact, convenient, comfortable. The living room is made more spacious by the large opening into the sun room.

■ Picturesque English cottage with narrow casement windows.

T H E W A R R E N

■ An English type whose interesting, wide, sloping roofs add a touch of distinction to its unusual exterior.

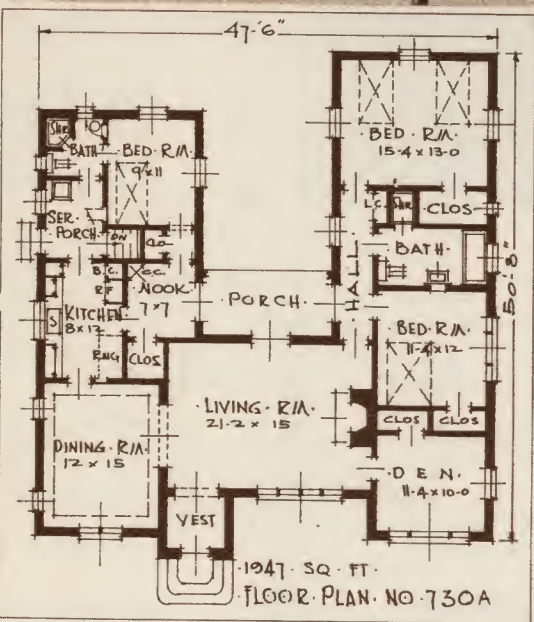

■ Another English type home with a splendid floor plan.

T H E M c F A U L

■ Character due to excellent proportions.

- Has irregularly laid whitewashed brick.
- Two fireplaces add greatly to its comfort and cheer.

THE P A Y N E

■ A house of exceeding comfort and flowing, dignified lines.

10970-CU. FT.
FLOOR PLAN NO. 639A

■ Latticed windows, whitewashed brick walls and red tile roof make this Mediterranean type house.

THE COLORADO

THE ANNAN

■ Quaint, unusual, livable, airy, dignified.

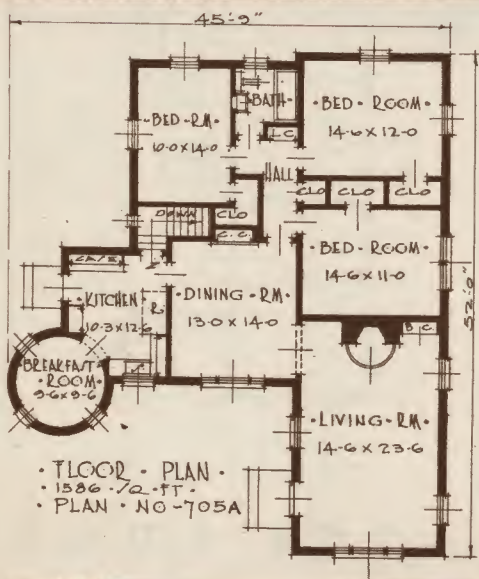

■ A real air of hospitality achieved by careful designing.

THE EUGENE

■ Distinctive because of herringbone brick treatment, half-timbering and stucco.

■ A flavor of Norman English with beautiful roof lines.

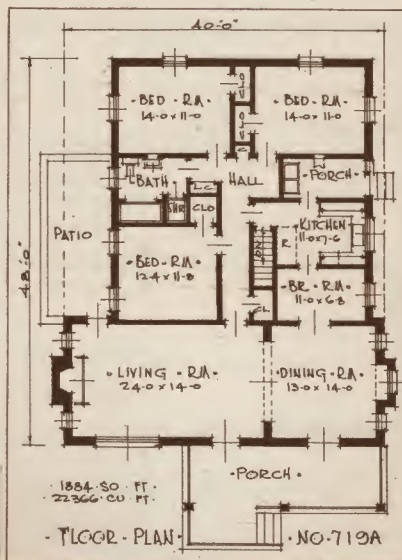

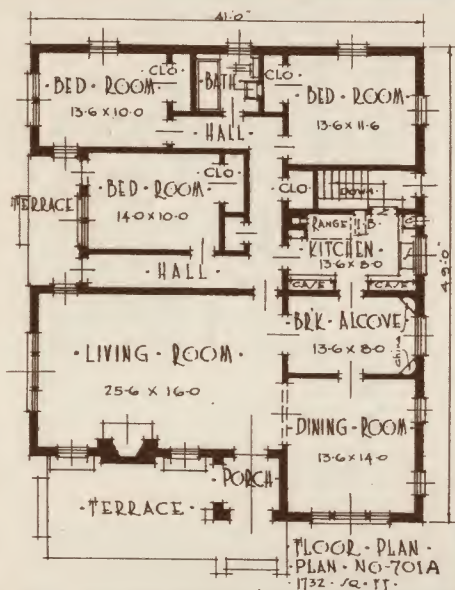

■ Unusually novel treatment of the brick work gives charm to this exterior. Arrangement of rooms around the patio is most attractive.

■ Mediterranean type with large window areas. Suggests the planting of exotics.

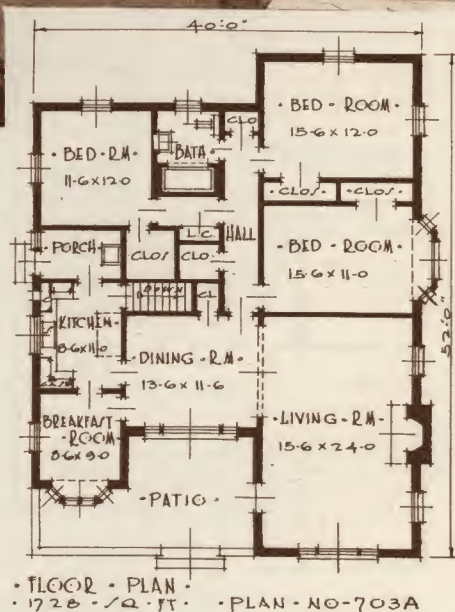

■ The patio should provide many pleasant hours.

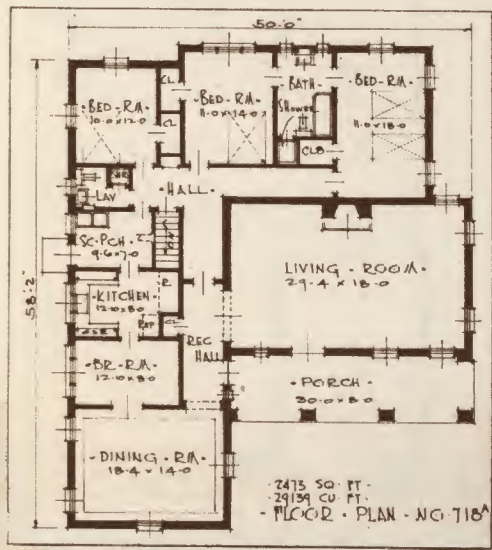

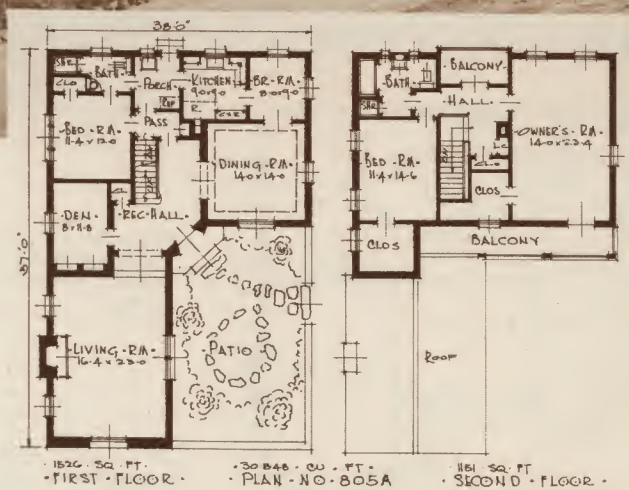

■ Attractive terraces, wide eaves, graceful roof lines.

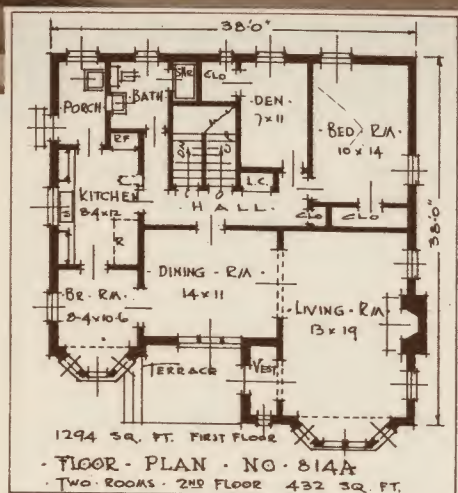

■ Two stories, reminiscent of old Monterey, interesting balcony and patio treatment.

■ Ranch house type in whitewashed brick and red-tile roof. The L-shaped house has many advantages.

■ Livable, light and airy because of large window areas, distinctive.

■ Substantial beauty from everlasting brick. Large casement windows make the house cheerful.
